Painter | Acupuncturist | Registered Artist in Canada
Born in 1954, Beijing, China
Lives and Work in Vancouver, BC, Canada

Biography

Binbin Huang is a Canadian-based painter and registered acupuncturist, recognized as a Chinese national first-class artist. She is Vice President of both the Canadian Colombian Artists Association and the Canadian Association of Traditional Chinese Acupuncture and Moxibustion Doctors. Born in Beijing into a scholarly family with deep roots in traditional Chinese medicine and art, Binbin has studied painting and traditional Chinese medicine from a young age.

Specializing in meticulous paintings of beautiful women, landscapes, flowers, and birds, she began formal study under Master Sun Jianyun at age 17, focusing on traditional Chinese figure painting for eight years. Her work blends Eastern and Western techniques, and she is also trained in decorative art design and oil painting. In addition to her visual art practice, Binbin has worked in film and television as a director, producer, and designer, contributing to over 200 episodes of TV and film productions.

Her artwork has been widely collected in Canada, the U.S., Europe, and Asia, and has been exhibited at the prestigious ART CAPITAL at the Grand Palais and the Louvre Modern Art Exhibition in France.
