Award-Winning Portrait and Landscape Painter

Born in 1974, Tehran, Iran

Lives and Work in Vancouver, BC, Canada

Biography

Bita Mohabbati is an internationally acclaimed artist based in Vancouver, Canada, originally from Tehran, Iran. With over 30 years of experience, she is a painter, sculptor, and dedicated arts educator who has made a profound impact on both students and collectors alike. Early in life, Bita founded a design studio in Tehran to mentor young artists, teaching both classical and contemporary techniques.

While formally trained in graphic design, her artistic expression flourished through self-directed study, intensive workshops, and immersion in oil painting, acrylic, and sculpture. Her work explores Realism, Surrealism, and Modernism—consistently engaging the viewer through emotional depth and visual storytelling. Bita’s creations are a dynamic dialogue between surface and meaning, inviting contemplation of the human experience.

Her portfolio includes nine solo exhibitions and more than 40 group exhibitions across Iran, Europe, and North America. Since moving to Canada in 2023, she has become a vibrant part of Vancouver’s art community, continuing to inspire new generations of artists through both her teaching and artwork.
