Biography

Uncle Zeng (Xiangming Zeng), born in 1951 in China, is a celebrated artist renowned for his mastery across multiple media including drawing, watercolor, acrylic, oil painting, and architecture. A graduate of Guangzhou Academy of Fine Arts (1975), he is the founder of the Canadian and American Drawing Artists Association.

His works often depict idyllic visions of past and present landscapes, rendered with a romantic, peaceful, and vibrant touch. Over his career, Uncle Zeng has exhibited over a thousand works across Asia, North America, Europe, and Australia. He is featured in the Encyclopedia of Famous Chinese Artists, and two of his paintings are part of the permanent collection at the National Gallery of China. His solo exhibitions include prestigious venues such as the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the University of Pennsylvania, and Simon Fraser University.
